ORDER

On Tuesday, May 18, 2010, the Court held a conference call on Pepper Hamilton's Emergency Motion to Withdraw as Counsel of Record for Braintech and Frederick Weidinger (Doc. # 27). In connection with that Motion, filed on March 8, 2010, the Court entered an Order staying this case until May 21st, to allow Braintech and Frederick Weidinger time to find new counsel.

In the conference call held on May 18th, Susan Koval and Anne Widlack appeared and said they were entering an appearance for Braintech, but only to defend Braintech on the Second Amended Counterclaim. Mr. Geoffrey Greeves appeared to say he would file an appearance on behalf of Frederick Weidinger. Mr. J.P. Murphy appeared for Adil Shafi. David Parker appeared to say he was no longer corporation counsel for Braintech. James VandeWyndeard appeared as well.

Based on the discussion held, Pepper Hamilton's motion is GRANTED. Further, if counsel has not filed an appearance on behalf of Braintech on or before May 21, 2010, to represent it as Plaintiff in this action, Braintech's Complaint will be DISMISSED. Braintech has been on notice since Pepper Hamilton filed its motion in March, and again when this Court entered its Order on April 7th, that it would need to find replacement counsel.

IT IS ORDERED.
